LEADERSHIP FOR LAW ENFORCEMENT

Register at: Leadership for Law Enforcement or at www.on-targetsolutionsgroup.com

Who should attend: All law enforcement executives, managers, supervisors or front-line employees who strive to be an effective leader. Without understanding leadership and developing strong leadership skills, organizational success can suffer.

Why another program on leadership? Leadership has been a recognized discipline for thousands of years in the military, business, politics and government. Understanding leadership differences along with similar approaches across disciplines can be of great value to government executives. Advances in the understanding of leadership as it pertains to government service have found that the best leaders must have an overlapping skill set. This compelling and powerful program provides real world, successful examples on how leadership in law enforcement has evolved. Participants will take away a clear understanding of leadership styles and strengths, and what it takes to become an even more effective leader. You will understand the value in developing flexibility in your leadership approach to garner peak performance and meet organizational goals.

Topics Include:

- What is leadership - do not follow the fads
- How has leadership advanced in government
- The difference between leadership, management and administration
- The best leaders are.....
- Laws of leadership
- Symptoms of leadership deficit
- What gets measured gets done

"Made the class feel like it was directed towards me specifically." Great input. Not just for leaders of rank but for anyone wanting to make their department better by becoming a leader." K9 Ofc. Travis Bellon, Lone Peak PD

"Very clear usage of leadership. This class should be taught at the line level to every recruit and again periodically throughout your career."

Det. Nate McDonald, South Salt Lake PD

"The reason I scored it only 4's was because there were no 5's. Awesome class, very informative."
